What they're saying

TESTIMONIALS

Ellenox did all of Clockout's designs. Social apps are the hardest to get right, but they really did! Ankur went beyond in providing guidance on growth, analytics and all the little pieces that are easy to overlook during a launch. I've already recommended them to every founder friend I know.

Krishna Dosapati
Founder of Clockout

Working with Ellenox is like adding to the founding team. Prashanth & Ankur bring a level of experience and care that you only get from co-founders. Great to have on your side during the critical early years of your startup.

Bryan Lord
Serial Entrepreneur

My business partner, who had the pleasure of working with Ellenox, recommended them with utmost confidence. Their work has been transformative for my business. They designed an app that not only met but exceeded my vision, elevating my company's digital presence. The team is thoughtful, efficient, and a pleasure to work with.

IOS & Android

NEED

Networking and socializing have become distinctly different parts of life.

Clockout bridges the gap by letting people socialize with their peers.

SOLUTION

Clockout lets you meet interesting people around you through clubs and social events.

The app has a focus on in-person gatherings and moves away from the digital-only impact of older social media products.

We Hear You

SEED

VC BACKED

Mental wellness made into a habit.

Havoc Therapy is a team of mental health professionals that recognized a gap in the Indian market when it came to mental healthcare.

Their mission is to bring affordable care to Indians that do not have the privilege of being able to afford expensive therapy.

Open Links

PRE-SEED

BOOTSTRAPPED

The world's first golf networking platform.

Open Links Golf is a platform connecting golfers and courses. Golfers can discover courses, check real-time conditions and specials, and potentially book tee times, while courses can share information, updates, and attract new players through a dedicated communication channel.

This platform aims to streamline the golfing experience for both sides, making it easier for golfers to find their perfect course and for courses to connect with their target audience.

Industry

Product

Website & App

Platforms

IOS & Android

NEED

Finding the right course can be challenging, especially when traveling or looking for specific features.

Golfers find it hard to keep track on the latest updates & events of their regular courses.

SOLUTION

Open links allows easy searching and filtering of over 15,000 courses in the US by location, features, and even real-time conditions.

It's a single platform for courses to manage their information, ensuring consistent and up-to-date details are readily available to potential players.
